

Agenda
Amusement Rides and Devices & Explosives

August 11, 2022 | Colorado Mesa University | Room 221

8:00 - 8:15 am	Welcome  Amusements Program: Session One
8:15 - 9:00 am	ASTM F770 - What Does it Mean to Me? Guest Speaker Nancy Heard, Manager at Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park.
9:15 - 10:00 am	Program Overview Learn how rides are regulated at OPS including registration requirements, application processing, injury reporting requirements and the Enforcement Process.
9:30 - 10:00 am	Morning Break  Amusements Program: Session Two
10:15 am - 11:00 am	Alternative Methods and Procedures Process and Major Modifications Learn about the Alternative Methods and Procedures application process. Learn what constitutes a major modification of a ride and how the inspection requirements differ from an annual inspection.
11:00 - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 - 1:15 pm	Welcome  Explosives Program: Session One
1:15 - 2:00 pm	Program Overview Learn about the Explosives Program permitting process, written exam requirements and regulation changes that occurred in 2019.
2:00 - 2:30 pm	Afternoon Break  Explosives Program: Session Two
2:30 - 2:45 pm	Fingerprint Requirements / Neighbor Notifications and Pre-Blast Survey

Considerations

Learn about the current fingerprint process for type I applicants, neighbor notification requirements, pre-blast survey considerations and the Enforcement Process at OPS.

3:00 - 3:15 pm

Underground Damage Prevention Excavation Overview

The UDP Safety Commission presentation will include an overview of the Safety Commission's enforcement role, the complaint process and the importance of contacting 811 before digging.

3:30 pm

Closing